Summer 2021 Newsletter

SAYING GOODBYE IS HARD TO DO

After 11+ years, the Dallas Preschool Readiness Project (DPREP), now known as the Dallas Project on Education Pathways, is coming to a close. As a longitudinal study, this project was intended to study your child's development as they grew older, from preschool all the way to middle school. We have done just that!

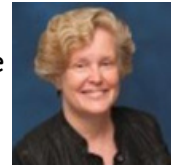

Over the past years we have been able to see how children grow and learn in many areas of their lives from math and reading, to their relationship with friends, and how their emotions and feelings mature. This study has and will continue to provide invaluable information on children's development and will help better inform government policies, schooling, child care systems, parents and other caregivers, and much more. We couldn't have done it without you and your family. We appreciate you beyond measure, and hope you have enjoyed your experience working with us.

We will miss you all greatly!

SUMMER FUN FOR THE FAMILY

DALLAS SYMPHONY IN THE CITY: Celebrate the start of summer with patriotic music and American classics at free outdoor concerts, all conducted by Michelle Merrill. These outdoor concerts are family-friendly and free to attend. Visit www.dallassymphony.org or call 214-849-4376.

DALLAS CITY OF LEARNING: Search hundreds of at-home learning activities and in-person experiences from educational nonprofits and companies you trust. You can search for these programs and hundreds more by age or interest area. visit www.dallascityoflearning.org.

PALS KIDS CLUB: Galleria Dallas is on a mission to help kids tap into their creativity by thinking outside of the box. PALS (Play, Art, Learn, Seek) Kids Club is free. It's easy to sign up online at www.GalleriaDallas.com/programs/PALS or at the Galleria's Guest Reception Center on the first level near Center Court.

CAMP YOUTUBE: Camp Youtube brings the fun of summer camp to families at home. The camps cover multiple areas including STEM, Arts, Sports, and Adventure themed camps to learn new skills, stay active, and explore the world together. This is a great option for families that want to stay at home and learn fun, new things. There are Campfire Talks to encourage families to have discussions on key topics such as race, discrimination. Kids can take virtual field trips around the globe using virtual reality. Families can also download #CampYouTube bingo boards and cross off camp activities they complete. Create a free Youtube Kids account at www.youtube.com/intl/ALL_us/kids/ and then visit www.youtube.com/learning.
