

Infant Learning Project – Dr. Melanie Spence
Application for Participation in PSY 4V98 – Directed Research

OFFICE USE ONLY:
Rec'd:
Initials:
EM	Drop	Other

APPLICATION DEADLINES: Check box of semester(s) you are interested in

Spring Semester Summer Semester Fall Semester
NOVEMBER 1ST APRIL 1ST APRIL 1ST

Name: _____
Phone Number: _____
Email Address: _____
Major: _____

Check One: Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior Graduate (Master's/PhD)

Cumulative GPA: _____

Plans after graduation:

Have you taken any classes involving Cognition, Perception, or Development? Yes No

If yes, please list the classes and professors:

What computer skills do you have? (PC vs. Mac and programs proficient in)

On a scale 1 to 5, how comfortable are you with communicating with parents on the phone (1 being the least comfortable, 5 being the most comfortable)?

1 2 3 4 5

Are you fluent in any language other than English? Yes No

If yes, please list languages:

Infant Learning Project – Dr. Melanie Spence
Applications for Participation in PSY 4V98

Have you had any experience with children or infants? Yes No
If yes, please explain

Have you had prior research experience? Yes No
If yes, please explain:

Have you had prior paid working experience? Yes No
If yes, please explain some of your responsibilities

Briefly explain why you'd like to participate in the Infant Learning Project.

Please indicate your availability for each day: (You are required to work 3 hours PER credit hour, but list as many times as you are available. "*" Can be used to denote preferences.)

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday

An interview is required from all interested students as part of the application process and does not imply acceptance into the lab for Directed Research or Independent Study credit. Applicants should not interpret any statements made or questions asked during the interview process to mean that he or she has been accepted. Official notification will be made to the applicant by the lab managers after careful consideration of all applicants each semester.